“Personal service sets us apart.”

I joined Johanson & Yau in 1983 and became a partner in 2002. I specialize in serving individuals, corporations, partnerships and estates and trusts. I take great pride in personal service and enjoy helping clients meet their goals.

I'm avid sports fan and hold season tickets for all of the major teams in the Bay Area. I also serve as the assistant chief administrative minister for the Konko Churches of North America. I was born and raised in San Jose.
